

It is absolutely unfair for Sinclair to preempt their stations' normal programming and play the film ''Stolen Honor: Wounds That Never Heal''. This film was made for one reason only. To elect George Bush by tearing down Kerry for what he did 30 years ago. It would be just as partisan if they preempted programming to broadcast Fahrenheit 9/11. Sinclair broadcasts over the public airwaves and should not be allowed to use them to influence the election.

Sinclair is hypocritical by using free speech as an argument to show this film. Sinclair had no problem blocking the Nightline program that showed the faces of soldiers killed in Iraq. They have shown that they will censor free speech as long as it helps George Bush.
